TITLE OF COURSE: REC: Recording Every Corner

This ten-week multimedia mentorship examines urban studies through issues of immigration and cultural borders, both official and imagined. Students will also be introduced to a contemporary arts practice anchored in video production and drawing skills through a global and intergenerational survey of various topics. These case studies include themes in visual and cultural studies, urban interventions, key exhibitions, performative & time-based art, and even comic book history!

Fill out the registration form & leave it with your teacher or drop it off at

1. Illness or Emergency

- In the event of an unexpected illness, accident or emergency incident during the youth's participations in the programs, Galeria staff adhere to the following guidelines
- No medication of any kind will be administered by Galeria staff without the expressed written consent of youth's personal physician and a parent or guardian. First aid such as band aids and bandages, etc. will be administered in cases which appear minor in nature
- If the youth is feeling ill prior to the start of the program, we ask parents they do not send them.

2. Attendance

- In order to participate, we ask that the individual commit to coming to every session possible.
- If the participant will not be able to attend a class, please be sure to contact the instructors or a Galeria de la Raza staff member at 415-826-8009
- At every class you must sign in and out on the attendance sheet with the instructor

3. Studio 24 Conduct

- No Eating, Drinking or snacking around the computers or other equipment. Food must be eaten at tables away from equipment
- SIGN-IN AND SIGNING OUT:
  - When you first enter the lab, please sign in with the instructor. Provide name, date, and class name. Please be sure to sign-out when the workshop is over.
  - Instructors will let you know what the student logins are for each workshop.
- Copying software from the Lab is illegal.
- Installing software onto computers is not permitted. This includes applications downloaded from the Internet.
- If your class requires installation of software, see lab staff.
- Use of instant messengers; yahoo, MS, or gmail messengers are not allowed. They SLOW down our connection, so please do not download these programs.
- STUDENT FOLDERS
  - Please save audio and graphic files in designated student folders. We will be doing weekly maintenance of computers and all files not located in student folders will be deleted.
