* In order to take part in our Youth Riots after-school workshops, each student under consideration will be asked to attend a brief interview with the workshop instructors. Below are some questions to get you thinking about your interest in our program.

- What is most exciting to you about taking a workshop in new media? Are you more concerned in designing your own visual and audio art projects, or in strengthening your resume?
- What kind of projects are you most excited about working on?
- Are you interested in the possibility of continuing a relationship with us at Galeria and helping the staff at Studio 24 run similar workshops or join us when our print center is open to the public?
- Do you have previous experience in either working with computers and design programs or participating in visual and performance arts programs?
